BONUS BILL PASSES HOUSE

Late Thursday evening the House finally passed the $4,000,000,000 Soldier Bonus Bill, that has been the subject of contention and turmoil in that body. It provides cash payments to men entitled to receive $50 or less, an endowment insurance certificate on which service men may borrow up to 50 per cent of its face value for others and service men are given the option of these two provisions for home aid, farm aid, land settlement and vocational training.

The bill now goes to the senate, where President Harding will make a fight to have it delayed.

The vote was 333 to 70, vastly more than sufficient to put meas—was unable to obtain an estimate of the loss, as both owner and renter of the property are out of town.

The second fire occurred at the home of Clay Haggard, on Ninth and Beech. At the time of the fire no one was in the house, and as the house was shut up tight, very little draft aided the fire. The kitchen and dining rooms were burned but due to quick work by the firemen, the flames were stifled in short order. The loss in this case will not be very heavy.
